HEY, BARTENDER!

Great cocktails are made for drinking, and for the unadmitted truth, the best party has a few pit-pat-pat cocktails on the plating to catch the eye in the party, along with something long and cool, gloriously mixed by the IRL staff just in time for New Year's.

THE HIGHER POWER of the beverage can't be denied. "It's not like a beer, you're not supposed to drink it, you're supposed to drink it," says the author of the book, "The Higher Power of Beer." The book is a collection of recipes for beer-based cocktails, including a "Higher Power" cocktail with beer, lime, and agave. The book is available for purchase at www.bloomingdales.com.
